

Seigfreid Bingham Sponsors 2023 MIAA Basketball Media Day

Seigfreid Bingham was pleased to continue to be the presenting sponsor of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA) Basketball Media Day.

Attorneys Greg Whiston and Tate Thompson attended the event, which took place on October 10, 2023, at the College Basketball Experience in Kansas City, Missouri. The MIAA Basketball Media Day provided a platform for players and coaches to network, interact with the media, and celebrate the start of the 2023 men's and women's basketball seasons.

"As a former collegiate athlete, witnessing the excitement from the conference and teams surrounding their upcoming season at the MIAA Basketball Media Day was an enjoyable experience," Tate Thompson said. "We are thrilled to support our client through this sponsorship and be a part of 'tipping off' the MIAA's basketball season here in Kansas City at none other than the College Basketball Experience venue and Hall of Fame."

At Seigfreid Bingham, Greg and Tate are members of the firm's Sports and Entertainment Industry Group, working with teams, leagues, universities, conferences, and entertainment venues on a variety of legal matters.
